

SITE PHOTOGRAPHS: PROPOSED 30M HIGH TELECOMMUNICATION MAST ON PORTION 28 OF FARM NO. 71, EENDEKUIL, PIKETBERG, WESTERN CAPE

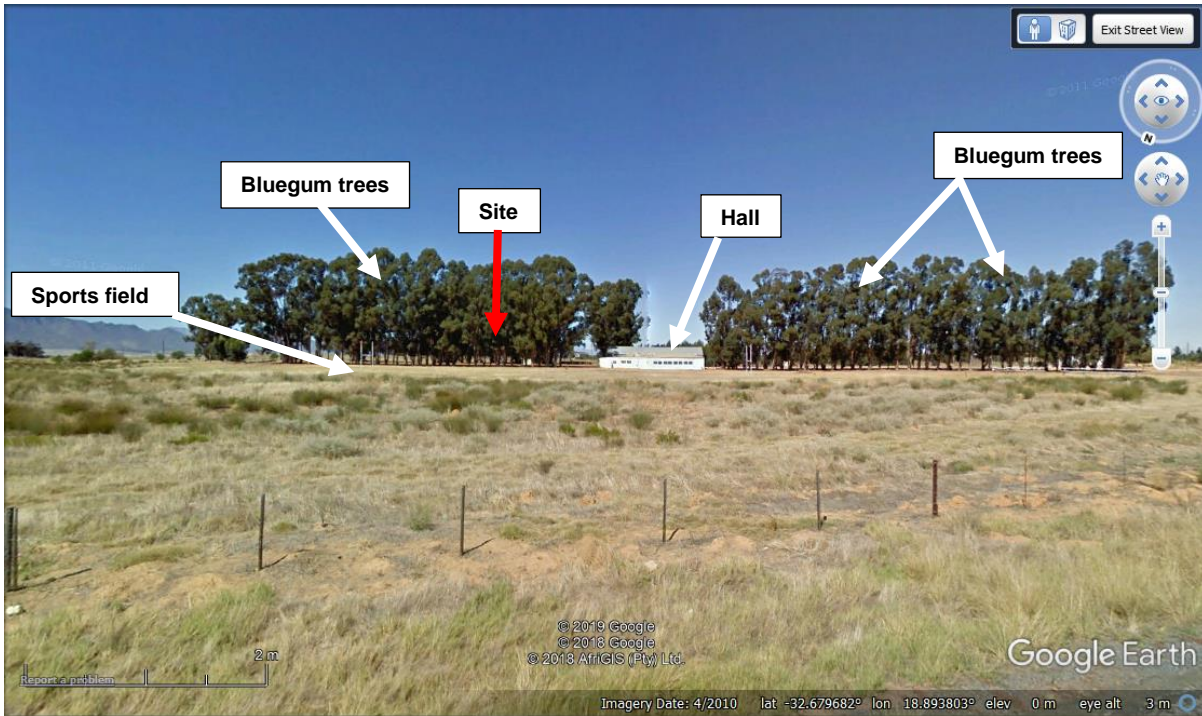

Figure 1: Google Earth view of the proposed site (red arrow), looking in a southern direction as viewed from the R365 road. The proposed site is surrounded by some tall mature bluegum trees. The hall and the sports field are located to the north of the site.

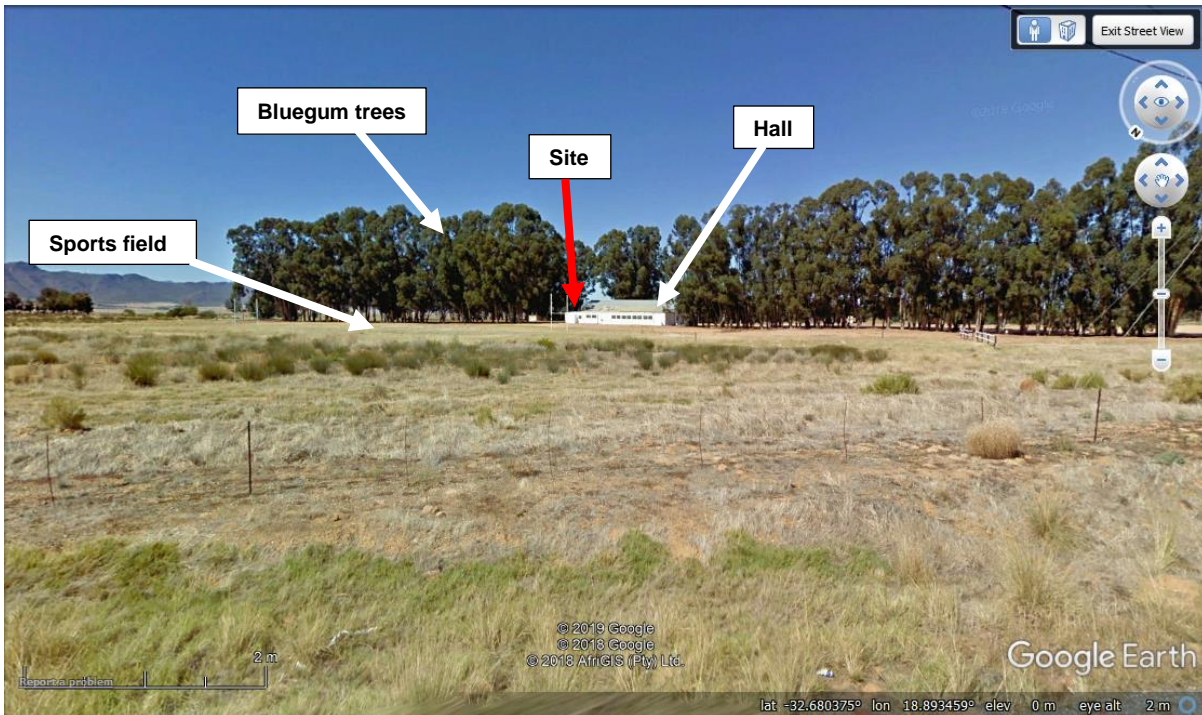

Figure 2: Google Earth view of the proposed site (red arrow), looking in a south-eastern direction as viewed from the R365 road. The proposed site is surrounded by some tall mature bluegum trees. The hall and the sports field are located to the north of the site.

Figure 3: Google Earth view of the access road to the site as viewed from the R365 road, looking in a south-eastern. The tennis court is located approximately 195m west of the proposed site.

Figure 4: Google Earth view of the proposed site (red arrow) and the access road, looking in a south-eastern direction as viewed from the R365 Road. The sports field is approximately 94m north-west of the site.

Figure 5: Google Earth view of the proposed site (red arrow), looking in a south-eastern direction as viewed from the R365 Road. The proposed site is surrounded by some mature bluegum trees, which act as some visual screening. The site is generally surrounded by agricultural land uses.

Figure 6: Google Earth view of the proposed site (red arrow), looking in a north-eastern direction as viewed from the R365 Road. The proposed site is surrounded by some mature bluegum trees, which act as some visual screening. The site is generally surrounded by agricultural land uses.

Figure 7: Google Earth view of the proposed site (red arrow), looking in a north-eastern direction as viewed from the corner R365 and Meul Street. The proposed site is surrounded by some mature bluegum trees, which act as some visual screening. The site is generally surrounded by agricultural land uses.